From the Minister of State for Civil Aviation, Govt.of India, D.O.No.34/19/2007-C&W, dated 29.8.2008 addressed to the Hon'ble C.M.

ORDER:

In his letter read above addressed to the Chief Minister, the Minister of State for Civil Aviation, Govt.of India, New Delhi has informed that the Ministry of Civil Aviation, Govt.of India, jointly with Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry (FICCI) is organizing the first International Exhibition and Conference on Civil Aviation "India Aviation, 2008" at Begumpet, Hyderabad from October 15-18, 2008 and that the event will be the first of its kind in the sub-continent, and a number of countries and companies are showcasing a wide range of products and technologies. The Union Minister has further informed that Ministerial delegations from selected 26 countries have been invited to take part in the event and USA has also agreed to be a Partner Country for the event.

2. In this connection the Union Minister of State for Civil Aviation has suggested that in order to further enrich the stay of the delegates at Hyderabad, it may be a good gesture to present before the participating delegates the regional culture and cuisine of Andhra Pradesh and GoAP being the host State, may consider hosting cultural programme followed by dinner for the participants on the evening on 16th October, 2008.

3. Government has therefore decided to host Dinner to the participants of the "India Aviation, 2008" on 16th October, 2008, at Novotel, near Hi-tech City, Hyderabad. The Infrastructure Corporation of A.P. (InCAP) shall host this Dinner on behalf of the State Government. It is also decided that the Dept. of Cultural Affairs, Hyderabad shall organize a 40-minute cultural programme before the dinner on 16th October, 2008.
